In 2008, a significant portion of the John Dolan Library Collection was donated to the Stewart Resources Centre. The following pages list all of the materials which are now housed here. These resources are now available to be borrowed by any Saskatchewan resident.

If you would like to borrow any of these items, just contact us -- the information to phone, mail, or email us is listed on the cover. Let us know the name(s) of the item(s) that you would like to borrow, or the topic for which you would like to have resources. Most items may be borrowed for four weeks.

For out-of-town borrowers: We will mail books and large audiovisual kits to you free of charge. We will include a postage-paid return label for you to use to mail the items back to us. However, you will need to pay the return postage for single videos and smaller kits.
