2018 Great Work Award Recipient
Nolan Paradis, Swift Current, SK

Are you ready to nominate?

Read the nominations guidelines below and fill out the nomination form on the next page.

Share someone's employment story! The Great Work Award is presented to people in all employment scenarios, including: a transition (a "first job" story), skill or career progression through long-term employment (either with one employer or multiple), or self-employment.

The award recipient receives:

- $300
- A commemorative SARC Award
- A video vignette* that highlights their journey to achieve their goals – the video will be shown at the SARC Awards Banquet and will be posted on YouTube, so recipients can share their success with family and friends!
- Two complimentary tickets to the SARC Awards Banquet.
- If the recipient does not live in the location of the Awards Banquet, they are provided with:
  - o One night's hotel stay
  - o Meal expenses (breakfast or lunch) for themselves and one guest
  - o Travel expenses as per SARC rates to and from the event

*SARC staff will contact the award recipient's organization within 2-3 weeks after the nomination deadline. SARC staff will travel to the award recipient's community and get footage for the video vignette. Filming takes approximately six hours and will feature the recipient, the nominator, other organizational staff, friends, family, or others in the community who can help share the award recipient's story.

Nominations Guidelines:

- People nominated must be supported by a SARC Regular or Associate Member.
- Each organization may submit a maximum of 2 nominees per SARC Award category.
- Please use a separate nomination form for each person being nominated.
- An individual may only be nominated for one of the six SARC Award categories per year.
- The nominee must be employed at time of nomination.
- To encourage a diverse set of stories across the awards program, if you are nominating someone for The Inclusive Advantage Award please do not also nominate their employee(s) for The Great Work Award.
- Please do not nominate someone who has previously received a SARC Award or a former Al McGuire Award.
- Please ensure that people nominated are willing to be featured in a video.
- If at all possible, individual selected to receive an award should be in attendance at the banquet on October 23, 2019.

Nomination deadline at 12:00 pm (noon) June 5, 2019

Tips for Completing the Nomination Form:

- Consider the main points you would like to highlight and ensure they come through in your writing.
- Read what you've written from the perspective of someone who doesn't know the nominee: does it capture the nominee's story?
- Consider having someone else review the nomination for that second set of eyes - not only for proofreading (spelling & grammar) but also for a different perspective.

See next page to complete nomination:

Describe the nominee's current employment situation and success in employment.
In responding, the selection committee is interested to learn about:

- The steps the nominee has taken to get where they are now (employment preparation, job experience, training/education, etc.).
- The nominee's approach to work, which could include things like a good work ethic, a positive attitude, and being a good team member.
- The positive impact employment has had on the nominee.

Once this form is completed, please send the filled out document to ajanzen@sarc.sk.ca or click here:
