Module 1: Governance

ELEVATE defines a ‘provincial charitable organization’ in Saskatchewan. For your province’s definition of a provincial charitable organization, please see your provincial government’s website.

Information on Nonprofit organizations in Saskatchewan is covered in Module 1. Please see your provincial government’s website, or visit the Government of Canada’s website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/non-profit-organizations.html> for information about your province’s nonprofit organization legislation.

Provincial and territorial human rights laws share many similarities with the Canadian Human Rights Act and apply many of the same principles. They protect people from discrimination in areas such as restaurants, stores, schools, housing and most workplaces. ELEVATE references the Saskatchewan Human Rights

Code. To find information specific to Human Rights in your province, please visit <http://ccdp-chrc.ca/eng/content/provincial-territorial-human-rights-agencies>

Module 2: Board Roles and Responsibilities

Module 2 references the SARC Learning Central Board Resource Area as a website to find policies, links, templates, and resources relating to Boards of Directors regardless of which province your organization is in. This website also contains federal legislation information.

<http://www.sarclearningcentral.ca/resources/details/board-of-directors>.

Module 3: Board's Role as Employer of the Executive Director

Module 3 references the Saskatchewan Employment Act. Please visit the Government of Canada's website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/non-profit-organizations.html> or your own provincial government's website for applicable legislation.

Module 4: Legal Responsibilities

Module 4 references the Nonprofit Corporations Act, 1995 (of Saskatchewan) as well as the Saskatchewan Employment Act. Please visit the Government of Canada's website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/non-profit-organizations.html> or your own provincial government's website for applicable legislation.

Module 5: Financial Responsibilities

ELEVATE goes through the Saskatchewan Provincial Government Budget Cycle. Please visit the Government of Canada's website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/non-profit-organizations.html> or your own provincial government website for applicable information.
