

THE ECONOMIC CASE FOR SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT

FREE LUNCH AND LEARN

DATE: OCTOBER 13, 2020

TIME: 12:00-1:00 P.M.

KEYNOTE: MARK WAFER

PANELISTS: REPRESENTATIVES FROM WEYBURN RONA, FARM CREDIT CANADA, AND HUMBOLDT SOBEY'S

Mark Wafer is a disability rights activist. Until recently he was the owner of six highly successful Tim Hortons locations in Toronto. During his 25 years in the business Mark employed over 200 workers with disabilities in all areas of the operation including senior management. At any given time approximately 17% of his workforce identified as having a disability.

Learn about the economic benefits of supported employment from industry experts.

Gain ideas for developing an inclusive workforce.

REGISTER NOW