

SARC CONSULTING SERVICES

WHY CONTACT A SARC CONSULTANT?

SARC has consultants on staff to support Regular and Associate Members in the areas of human resources, labour relations, and facility planning.

Advice & Support

SARC's consultants are available to provide guidance and assistance on all aspects of labour relations, human resources, and facility planning.

Increase Knowledge & Capacity

Organizations of any size can benefit by incorporating additional expertise into their HR strategies, capital planning process, etc.

Minimize Organizational Risk

Having a quick check-in with one of SARC's Consultants before decisions are made can save you time and money in the end.

Meet SARC's Consultants!

Senior Labour Relations Consultant Scott Mostoway

Scott is available to assist Members with a number of LR issues, including interpretation and application of collective agreements and collective bargaining services. This position also supports all Members (whether unionized or not) with performance management related inquiries.

Contact Scott for a check in on employee and labour relations at (306) 230-5799 or by email at smostoway@sarc.sk.ca.

Workforce Development Coordinator Bobbi Janzen

Bobbi focuses on Disability Service sector workforce development initiatives and is available to assist Members with inquiries related to: recruitment and retention strategies, job descriptions, HR policies and procedures, compensation/total rewards, and succession planning.

Contact Bobbi for support in a variety of HR matters at (306) 933-0616 Ext. 221 or by email at bjanzen@sarc.sk.ca.

Facility Planner Don Epp

Don provides advice and support to Members on a variety of building matters free of charge, including: property purchases, renovations, new construction, accessible design, zoning, permits, building codes, and maintenance.

Contact Don for expertise on upcoming capital projects at (306) 371-4355 or by email at depp@sarc.sk.ca.

Consulting services are available to
SARC Regular and Associate Members
Learn more about the many benefits of SARC Membership at sarcsarc.ca/benefits

